From Brad Best, Superintendent...

Schools and other public facilities all across the country are re-evaluating their building security and taking action to do what they can to slow or reduce safety concerns for their students and staff. We are not immune and would like your ideas relative to increasing school security at Heartland. Please take the time to read the following information and then provide us with your feedback.

Why We are Thinking About More Security

Shy of implementing a prison system type of security, if someone is desperate to do harm, they will find a way in to a school. Some of the most recent tragedies have happened at schools that had security measures in place. Law enforcement would argue that even if we can't stop all threats, slowing them for even a few seconds could make an important difference in the outcome.

More typically, concerns arise for us with the potential of confronting an irate student, parent, or patron who wants to come to the school and create problems. We may receive information about restraining orders or non-custodial parents who may want to gain access to children several times each year. Currently, we make people aware of this information and hope that we are able to confront a possible threat before they make it to their intended location. Schools with controlled entry (ex. having to be "buzzed in" through a locked door) are able to deny access to these possible threats.

While a limited inconvenience for those coming to the school on a regular basis, schools have found that regulated access helps to monitor who is in the building at all times. This measure may also detour those who know they would be denied access without a legitimate purpose for being in the school.

Current Measures in Place

Currently, our school uses the following procedures to tighten school security:

- Most doors are locked during the day
- Hallway cameras record, but are not monitored live during the day
- We ask visitors to sign in
- We ask visitors to wear a visitor badge
- The staff is instructed to question unknown visitors
- Administrators use handheld radios for communication
- Staff wears identification in order to be easily identified by visitors

Considerations for New Security Measures

We are having discussions about increasing our efforts with controlled building access and an authority alert system.

If we were to add controlled access to the most frequently used doors, we would consider the following features:

1. The front doors and parking lot doors would operate on timers so that they would unlock for a period of time before and after school and then re-lock automatically at specific times.
2. Visitors to the building outside of the arrival and dismissal time frames would need to enter through the main entrance and would have to request access. They would do this by pushing a button and waiting momentarily to be "buzzed in" by office staff once they are identified or a purpose for entry by a stranger has been established. This system would include audio and video.
3. Certain entry doors could be programmed to automatically unlock for an activity and lock again after its completion.
4. Those needing access to the building outside of school hours for practices or other activities could be issued a card that allows access only during the times that have been pre-approved.
5. School staff would be issued an access card allowing them entry without having to "buzz in".

Please visit our website at www.heartlandschools.org to take a quick survey related to school safety. If you do not have internet access, give us a call at 402-723-4434. Once we have gathered information, we will share the results and have continuing discussion at our school board meeting on April 14th. If we decide to move forward, we will implement security changes as early as this summer.

Thank you for your input on this important topic and have a great spring!

Heartland Basketball 2013-14 Season

After much thought and reflection, here is what I am proud of from the 2013-2014 Husky Basketball Season:

1. Our Players. We developed skills on the court to help us win 18 games, and earn the Conference Tournament Runner Up. We were willing to put individual accomplishments aside, and focus our energy and efforts on the TEAM. We had players sacrifice minutes, points, and personal glory for the betterment of the team. Along those same lines, we developed stronger character traits throughout the season. You all helped with everything from keeping stats, to filming games. You did it with a smile, and never a complaint. It was a delight to be with you all along our journey together.

2. Our Parents. The parents of our players demonstrated passion and class for our team that was unmatched in any of the gyms that we attended. You were always willing to give your child a healthy meal, and 'cure' them when they had illnesses or injuries that needed mending. Our parents also held numerous 'team meals' where our boys got a nutritious meal, while also giving the boys time to bond with each other. This was a critical part of us coming together as a team. "Thank you" to all the parents who helped us along the way, from the large group tasks, to the small individual efforts to help our team grow.

3. Our Administration. We were able to focus on our responsibilities because you supported us, and believed in what we were doing on a daily basis. Thank you for trusting our coaching staff and our players to do the 'right thing'.

4. Our fans. During the beginning of the season we would be playing, and I could hear myself calling out plays or defenses. Along our journey, you turned up your volume and your enthusiasm at our games, and near the end of our season, I could hear you cheering us on. Your energy and passion certainly made a difference for our team. From the blackout vs. Sutton, the the Neon theme vs. Milford, and all the other imaginative creations in between; they were all memorable. Thanks to the Heartland teachers who were always supporting us along the way. It made the journey more memorable because of your support.

5. Our student managers. You may have one of the most thankless jobs in our family. Trevor Goertzen and Dawson Ohrt did everything asked of them, and more, with an unmatched enthusiasm for our team.

6. The Striv Team. Taylor and Co., thank you for following us and live streaming our games via the web. I know numerous Husky fans were able to watch our games because of your efforts. Thank you for making this a possibility for some family members who couldn't make it to the gym.

7. Our Assistant Coach. Joey, we had a blast together this season. Thanks for your words of wisdom, and sharing info about upcoming opponents. I look forward to doing it all again next season.

8. My Family. I know that I put a LOT of time into this season, but my wife Cortney held the family together while I was busy scouting, watching film, or getting practice plans finished. Thank you for taking care of our boys during this wild time. Thank you for always being there with Carson and Carter to support our team.

This Heartland Basketball Family isn't about one person, or even a small group of people. All of the success we had this season was only possible because we had a huge, community based, support group. We all had a hand in the basketball success this season, but more importantly, we all had a larger role in the character development of each individual boy on our team. Thanks for embracing me as the coach, and our family as part of the community. We are truly blessed.

Sincerely,

Clark Ribble
